The Death of Justice Defenders

This visualization shows the data of 2193 journalists and media workers from all over the world who had been murdered, killed in crossfire and combat, or on dangerous assignments over the past three decade, particularly between 1992 and 2023. The data were collected and filed by the American independent non-profit organization Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ).

Source: Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ)

Legend

Leaves = the number of the killed journalists's primary nationalities

1 portion = 1 involved nationality

The length of red line = the number of killed journalists in that year

1 curved line = 1 killed journalist

55 journalists were killed in total that year

Green curved lines = 16 of 55 killed journalists came from Algeria, which took !_____ the largest proportion of the casualties that year

L-----

16/55 - Algeria

journalists